

River Herring Technical Expert Working Group

Climate Change Subgroup

Co-Chairs: Janet Nye and Mike Alexander

NOAA Fisheries/ASMFC Support Staff: Diane Borggaard

June 01, 2016

First Name	Last Name	Affiliation	Expertise
Mike	Alexander	NOAA, Earth System Research Laboratory	Climate science
Diane	Borggaard	National Marine Fisheries Service Greater Atlantic Regional Fisheries Office	Proactive conservation
Frank	Borsuk	U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region III	Fisheries and Climate change
Jon	Hare	National Marine Fisheries Service Northeast Fisheries Science Center	Fisheries oceanography
Karin	Limburg	State University of New York	Fisheries ecology
Martha	Mather	Kansas State University	Fish ecology
Steven	McCormick	U. S. Geological Survey, Conte Anadromous Fish Research Center /University of Massachusetts	Fish physiology

Peter	Moore	MARACOOS (Mid-Atlantic Regional Association Coastal Ocean Observing System)	Fisheries liaison
Eric	Nelson	U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 1	Habitat impacts
Janet	Nye	Stony Brook University	Fisheries ecologist
Roger	Rulifson	East Carolina University	Water Quality, Fish Ecology
Eric	Schultz	University of Connecticut	Ecology Physiology
Charles	Stock	NOAA, Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Laboratory	Climate and Ecosystems
Desiree	Tommasi	NOAA, Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Laboratory	Fisheries oceanography
Karen	Wilson	University of Southern Maine	Aquatic ecology / Life histories

Note: Additional Council and Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission affiliations of subgroup members can be found on the River Herring TEWG roster found at: <http://www.nero.noaa.gov/protected/riverherring/tewg/index.html>