

River Herring Technical Expert Working Group

Stock Status Subgroup

Co-Chairs: Kevin Sullivan and Michael Bailey

NOAA Fisheries/ASMFC Support Staff: Diane Borggaard

June 22, 2016

First Name	Last Name	Affiliation	Expertise
Michael	Bailey	United States Fish and Wildlife Service	Fish biologist
Diane	Borggaard	National Marine Fisheries Service Greater Atlantic Regional Fisheries Office	Proactive conservation
Mike	Brown	Maine Department of Marine Resources	Diadromous fish restoration
Jud	Crawford	The Pew Charitable Trusts/Boston University ²	Fish behavior and Ecology/conservation science
Kiersten	Curti	National Marine Fisheries Service Northeast Fisheries Science Center	Population dynamics
Kim	de Mutsert	George Mason University	Fish ecology
Jason	Didden	Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council	Fishery Management

Ben	Gahagan	Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries	Diadromous fish
Jon	Hare	National Marine Fisheries Service Northeast Fisheries Science Center	Fisheries oceanography
Eric	Hilton	Virginia Institute of Marine Science, College of William and Mary	Population monitoring
Adrian	Jordaan	University of Massachusetts – Amherst	Ecology, Populations
Les	Kaufman	Boston University	Fishes, Fisheries
Jeff	Kipp	Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission	Stock assessment
Genine	Lipkey	Maryland Department of Natural Resources	Fish Biologist
Matthew	Ogburn	Smithsonian Environmental Research Center	Estuarine ecology
Anthony	Overton	East Carolina University	Early life history and Management
Darren	Porter	Commercial Fishing Representative	Fisheries, Habitat
Kevin	Sullivan	New Hampshire Fish & Game Department	Passage, Management
Alan	Weaver	Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries	Fish passage, species monitoring

Note: Additional Council and Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission affiliations of subgroup members can be found on the River Herring TEWG roster found at: <http://www.nero.noaa.gov/protected/riverherring/tewg/index.html>