

Butterfish Mortality Cap for the Directed Longfin Squid Fishery

Report run on: August 29, 2013
 For data reported through: August 28, 2013
Quota period: Trimester 2
Quota period dates: 05/01/13 to 8/31/13

Reporting Period	Estimated butterfish discard (mt)*	Cumulative estimated butterfish discard (mt)	Cumulative percent of quota (3,884 mt)
Trimester 1	38.91	38.91	1.0
May	1.43	40.34	1.0
June	6.02	46.36	1.2
July	30.96	77.32	2.0
August	34.51	111.83	2.9

*For information on the methodology used to estimate butterfish discard click here

Notice

The 2013 Mackerel, Squid, and Butterfish specifications are effective as of March 5, 2013.

In Trimester 2, the directed longfin squid fishery is closed if:

- Longfin squid landings are projected to reach 5,060 mt (11,155,390 lb) (from May 1 to August 15) -OR-
- Longfin squid landings are projected to reach 5,341 mt (11,774,889 lb) (from August 15 to August 31) -OR-
- The butterfish mortality cap reaches 2,913 mt (6,422,066 lb) (75% of the annual butterfish mortality cap allocation)

For information on the directed butterfish fishery click here

These data are the best available to NOAA's National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS) when this report was compiled. Data for this report are supplied to NMFS from dealers via Dealer Electronic Reporting, and the Northeast Fisheries Observer Program. Data may be preliminary. Discrepancies with previous reports are due to corrections made to the database.

